

TRIP HIGHLIGHT

The Bauhaus Museum will not fail to inspire you. Housed in a building designed by the movement's founder, the archives trace the history of Bauhaus architecture.

Glass Dome of the Reichstag

The New Synagogue

The Berlin Wall

KEY TRAVEL STUDY TOURS: EXPLORE BERLIN

GERMANY'S CAPITAL, BERLIN IS A TRULY COSMOPOLITAN CITY. BOASTING A VIBRANT GALLERY SCENE AND URBAN STREET ART CULTURE, THE CITY IS THE PERFECT DESTINATION FOR ART AND DESIGN STUDENTS. WITH AN ENDLESS SUPPLY OF WORLD CLASS EXHIBITIONS AND ATTRACTIONS, THE PLACE IS STEEPED IN HISTORY AND CULTURE, MAKING IT ONE OF THE UP AND COMING DESTINATIONS FOR EDUCATIONAL TRAVEL.

DAY 1

After boarding an early morning flight to Berlin Schönefeld International Airport (11 miles from Berlin), you will be transferred to your accommodation to check in. Here, you'll begin exploring the local area. Why not enjoy dinner at the Sphere revolving restaurant in the Berlin TV Tower, taking in the fantastic 360 degree views of the city as the sun goes down?

DAY 2

Spend the morning at the acclaimed Bauhaus Museum on the city's west side, where the history of this architectural movement is told. After indulging in a traditional German lunch, head to the Reichstag Building where you can soak in Berlin's cityscape in the daylight from the glass dome that tops the Neo-Renaissance parliament building. Finish the day with an evening at a traditional Berlin restaurant and enjoy a bratwurst or schnitzel for a true taste of German cuisine.

DAY 3

Embark on a street art walking tour of the city ending at The East Side Gallery. This open air gallery is set along a 1.3-km stretch of the Berlin Wall and comprises over 100 paintings from 1990 on the east side of the wall. The gallery is an international memorial for freedom and plays a huge role in communicating the unique history of Berlin. To ensure that you make the most of an inspiring morning of culture, unleash your creativity at a graffiti and street art workshop in the afternoon.

DAY 4

Relax aboard a sightseeing cruise on the River Spree, which sails gently through both old and new Berlin. Enjoy lunch in the city before checking out and heading back to the airport for flights back to the UK.

MISSING SOMETHING?

Why not swap any of the above activities for one of the following:

- Alte National Gallery
- The New Synagogue
- Pergamon Museum
- Hamburger Bahnhof (Museum of Contemporary Art)
- Olympic Stadium
- Jewish Museum
- Observations Tour

WHERE TO STAY

Generator Berlin Mitte

Situated in the heart of the city and formerly two 19th century office buildings, it's now fused into one arts-focused über hostel within walking distance of Hackescher Markt, Alexanderplatz and Kunsthaus Tacheles.

To discuss your next group trip, please contact us on 0161 819 8953 or email groups@keytravel.com
www.keytravel.com